DIANE WHITE

Jazz Vocalist Diane White's unique musical style resounds with her intense love of life, her seductive relationship with the arts and the polished professionalism that flows from formal musical studies - all elements of her personal dedication to music.

Diane's sultry songs are a rich mélange of classic jazz and modern melodies and harmonies. Her busy international career has taken her to throughout North America, the Caribbean, Europe, the Middle East, Asia and India and has allowed her to perform with the likes of Johnny Reid (Canada), Al Jarreau (U.S.A.), Vanessa Rubin (U.S.A.), Nicola Conte (Italy), Till Brönner (Germany) as well as a multitude of performances for several International dignitaries and Royal Families.

Both her formal education and her strong sense of individualism have served Diane well. Her warm, inviting tone recalls vocal giants Billie Holiday and Sarah Vaughn, it is Diane's desire to marry contemporary sounds with the jazz tradition attached with her charismatic live performances, which regularly win glowing reviews from both audiences and critics internationally.

Whether Diane is gracing the stage at the International Olympic Games, the Blue Note Milan or the Cotton Club in Tokyo her audience is always in for an ear-catching treat.
